

two cells unites in the uterus it ignites the programme for multiplication single cell begins to multiply smoothly as the day advances some cells differentiates to help for the survival of colleagues all function in smooth relation their motto is to live and help other to live